

OPHCC Meeting
November, 2018

President's Report: Monica

- Leslee will be E.D. by January

Treasurer's Report: Andra

- OPHCC should be receiving OCH funds by the end of December
- Thanksgiving Dinner Update:
- Molina donated $200
- Walmart donated $500
- No volunteers needed
- Delivery is available
- Help spread the word!

Board Member Update: Joe

- Please take part in the online survey
- Report on coalition/network dynamics will be a way to describe how it functions

Partner Spotlight

OV-CF: Leslie Lauren

- History: When the Highway bypass was being built, Sequim businesses rallied to raise money for beautification project to entice motorists to stop in Sequim.
- Sound Bank created Affinity Visa and 1% of all purchases go to OV-CF
- Fast Track Board Consulting created to provide consultation services
- Phillips Foundation joined effort to help nonprofit leaders hone skills: "Alliance for Leadership Programs"
- March 2019 OV-CF will focus on deepening collaborations
- Host/Facilitate Quarterly Trainings with Washington Nonprofits
- Launched Executive Directors networking lunches
- Nonprofit Hour
- OPNA (Olympic Peninsula Nonprofit Alliance) website launched as a clearing house for our sector
- Idea for collaborative Giving Tuesday came up at ED lunch
- Please join effort at Commissioners' meeting
- 11/27 Nonprofit Happy Hour!

Partner Updates

Opening Doors for Youth: Samantha

- She and Mike Flynn created this organization two years ago.
- They are seeking Host Homes in Sequim for youth (background checks required)
- Board members wanted
- HHs help mitigate conflict, and the goal is to keep youth in school to graduate

Sequim Food Bank: Andra

- 900 bags of food packed yesterday; 1400 will be distributed between Thanksgiving and Xmas
- PA and Sequim Food Banks working with Western Washington University for impact study

Sequim Farmers' Market: Ellie

- Holiday Shop Event 11/17 and 12/22 at Carrie Blake Park
- 5210 Banner is always out
- Trying to get 501(c)3 status

OMC: Donna

- Veggie audition tomorrow 11-1: Apple Slaw Rabe v. Roasted Radishes
- Employee "Coffee and Conversations" started
 - Brown bag lunch, casual
 - Personal Emergency Preparedness
 - Mindful potluck plate

Molina: Carlos

- These partnerships benefit the community
- 47,000 children in WA are homeless
- Molina is looking for solutions
- Loves to visit agencies
- Molina asks questions to learn about community culture

Meals for Sequim: Larry

- $2500 received from Haller Foundation

Sequim Free Clinic: Sara

- WOW gets 80 people per month
- WordPress classes coming up in January
- Social Media could be another topic

Parenting Matters/First Teach: Nicole

- Playground play group. Rain or shine but will follow Sequim school closures in winter

- 1st Teacher Family time on Mondays. Birth-6 years.
- 12/1 Breakfast with Santa

Olycap: Kim

- They would love input on menu for meals they deliver
- Introduced Jane who does volunteer coordinating of seniors. Currently there are 255
- They need drivers and cooks

NOLT: Tom

- Annual Meeting at PA Library
- Received generous donation today of property in Forks along Klahowya River

WSU: Karlana

- Increase in staff
- Continuing work with Department of Health
- Looking at processing food on a larger scale
- Also how to legally and safely distribute cooked food with catering, deli, etc.

DSHS: Jim

- Access to Food is now a focus
- Hiring new staff for West End

Texas A&M: Joe

- Focus groups with kids/parents
- Feasibility of creating value-added products
- Nutrition, food insecurity for seniors getting more attention

OCH: Lisa

- Opioid Summit on 10/27 had 300 attendees

OPCC: Shenna

- VIMO is changing its name to Olympic Peninsula Community Clinic
- Business is booming
- Acquired new van for homebound patients, street outreach, ReDiscovery Program

Patty:

- Interested in finding a way to spread ACES info to more community members
- Thanked Nicole for training at library

Minutes submitted by Rebekah Miller, OPHCC Secretary